

REPORT ON DAEJEON REGIONAL AKWAABA DAY HELD ON SATURDAY, 13TH OF MAY 2023 AT KDI SCHOOL OF PUBLIC POLICY, SEJONG CITY

INTRODUCTION

The Regional Akwaaba Day is an initiative set by Ghaska to officially welcome new students arriving in South Korea who are a part of the association. The aim of this event is to orient new members about the association and overall living and studying conditions in South Korea, and offer assistance in any capacity them. The Daejeon region on the 13th of May 2023, organized its maiden Akwaaba Day for new Ghaska members at KDI School of Public Policy in Sejong City.

ACTIVITIES

The event day involved a soiree organized by the president of Ghaska and team leader of Seongnam Foreign Residents Welfare Support Center. The Daejeon regional representative as well as old members and associates of Ghaska were also in attendance.

Lunch activity: The group enjoyed a variety of delicious continental dishes ranging from Ghanaian, Korean and Sri Lankan dishes prepared by team leader of Seongnam Foreign Residents Welfare Support Center, Ms Bia Lee with some assistance from the Ghaska president and some associates.

Members and associates sat and enjoyed a meal together and shared a hearty conversation. The new members from Daejeon and Sejong were also oriented about Ghaska and being a student living in Korea by the Ghaska President, the Daejeon Ghaska rep and much insight also from the team leader of Seongnam Foreign Residents Welfare Support Center.

CONCLUSION

The program was a success and the orientation of new members was also seamless. GHASKA aims to continue with this program to help create awareness and increase the Ghanaian student numbers for the association as well as offering necessary assistance to them where need be.

Photography: After lunch, the group took photos to commemorate the event and depart ways. Below are some photos of the event.

